WELCOME TO THE MALTA HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Explore the Digital Library, Publications, Lectures & Seminars available

BECOME A MEMBER
Membership

Membership is open to all those who wish to support the aims of the Malta Historical Society, in Malta and overseas.

To became a member, follow these steps:

1. Click on the “Become a Member” button found in the homepage banner or else click on the membership tab.

2. You will be directed to a page with all the information and benefits of becoming a member of the Malta Historical Society.
New Members

- Scroll down the Membership page to find the Membership Form.
- Fill in the details as indicated.
- In order to proceed it is important to include a referee and his/her contact details. Any member of the MHS may act as a referee. If none are known to you, please write to membership@mhs.mt.
- Click on Proceed to Payment.
• You will be given the option of a subscription according to your current status.

• Following your selection, you will be directed to enter your billing details.

• Please note that in order to proceed you need to check ‘I agree to all terms and conditions’
Payment

• Once you have entered the billing details, you will be directed to the payment gateway page, where you can insert your card details.

• Following a successful payment, you will receive an acknowledgement sent to the email address which you entered on registration.

Membership review process

• Full access to the website features will be given once your application is reviewed by the MHS Committee. This may take a few days. You will then receive an email advising of membership benefits as well as your coupon code.
Digital Library (members only)

One of the benefits of MHS membership is access to the online digital library which comprises MHS publications in e-book format.

How to access the Digital Library

- Click on the digital library tab on the Homepage banner
- A drop down menu will present you with options.
- Once in the digital library, you can use the word-search facility found on the left-hand side.
- Thumbnail images of the publications with the searched word or phrase will appear.
How to view a book

• Once you click on your chosen publication you will be given the option to view the book or to buy the book.

• To view the book online, click on the view book button. This will give the opportunity to view the book in your browser.
Bookshop (members and non-members)

The online Bookshop is the ideal place to acquire a print copy of any publication issued by the Malta Historical Society.

The bookshop is also open to non-members.

How to access the Bookshop

• Click on the Bookshop tab on the Homepage banner.

• Thumbnail images of all publications will appear.

• You can also choose to view categories of publications, as shown on the left-hand side.
Buying a book

- To buy a book, click on the thumbnail of your choice and then click Add to Cart.

- Click on the cart icon on the top right-hand corner.

- You will then be directed to your cart showing your book choice.

- You may buy more than one copy by changing the quantity accordingly.

- If you are a member of the MHS, you may use your coupon code for a discount on the price. Enter your coupon code next to the apply coupon button, then click on the button.

- Choose your preferred method of postal delivery

- Click on Proceed to Checkout.

- If you change your mind, click the X icon.
• You will be directed to a new page requesting your billing details

• If the billing and shipping addresses are different, then click on Ship to a Different Address and enter the details accordingly.

• Buyers in Malta have the option to choose from normal surface mail and registered mail. Overseas buyers will receive their parcel via registered mail.

• Please note that in order to proceed you need to check ‘I agree to all terms and conditions’

• Click on Proceed to Payment

Payment

• Fill in your card details as indicated

• Following your payment an email will be sent with your order details.